"Waiting for Icarus"

85X100 cm, oil on canvas, 2008

Victor Hagea is a visionary artist and a thinker. His ontology of image reflects upon Life and the beyond, man and the gods, time and space, dream and awareness. His surrealist art reflects upon the sacrificial condition of the artist, his struggle to unveil the Truth, facing its dazzling vision.

This vision reveals itself as a poetic universe with Baroque sublime twilights in Genesis, Mirror, Window, The Escape, Dream, Lights and Shadow, November, Waiting for Icarus. Hagea transfigures the pictorial surface of his paintings into an imaginary entrance, a specular trompe l'oeil - a Portal to enter another world.
